The Daily Dish celebrates National Dog Day with a Yappy Hour Dogs and Drinks in Silver Spring

(Silver Spring, MD-August 1, 2019)- Puppies and doggos and those who love them, rejoice! National Dog Appreciation Day is Monday, August, 26, 2019. To celebrate this tail-wagging event, The Daily Dish is holding a Yappy Hour on their outdoor patio from 5 pm to 7 pm. Joining them in paying homage to the courage, friendship and sloppy nose kisses of everyone's best friend is guest host is 'Petrendologist' Charlotte Reed. The Daily Dish's neighbor, Cleverdog, a doggie daycare with boarding and grooming will also be on hand.

Canine-themed offerings include "pup" tarts for humans ($4), jumbo hot dogs ($5) and cocktails ($6), including, The Pomeranian (rum, pomegranate juice, triple sec, fresh lemon and grapefruit juices), the Salty Dog (grapefruit juice and vodka with a salt rim) and yes, The Hair of the Dog (a Bloody Mary made with housemade gazpacho, vodka and hot sauce). Pups will enjoy special treats, including Frozen Doggie treats made of Coconut Oil, Peanut Oil and Bananas and Bacon Cheddar Dog Treats made in-house with all of a canine's favorite things--oats, cheese, bacon, and eggs ($3). The event is free. Reservations are not required.

A portion of proceeds will benefit The Humane Rescue Alliance, the only Congressionally-chartered animal welfare agency in the United States. As the open-access shelter in the Nation's Capital, it provides comfort and care to more than 51,000 animals annually through its programs and services including sheltering for homeless animals.
